will check in their suits and meet to elect a captain and manager for next year.

U MAY NOT MEET B. Y. C.

The game between the B. Y. college and the university to play off the tie in the state intercollegiate league series, will probably not be ployed. Coach Maddock was in Logan and could not make satisfactory arrangements with the B. Y. C. The U team is keeping in training, so it will be in shape if it is necessary to play off the game. The baseball men meet Saturday morning to select a captain for next year. Larsen, the crack pitcher, seems to be the popular choice.

The weston expects to spend tonight at Brighton, twenty miles north of Denver, and tomorrow morning he will resume his journey to the coast, going via Cheyenne and following the Union Pacific railroad tracks across Wyoming.

at a meeting of the track athletes held yesterday. Gus Backman was chosen manager of next year's team.

Atkins is one of the greatest athletes that the high school has ever developed. He was unknown until the class meet this year, when he took the hammer, shot, broad and high jumps, and hundred and two hundred and twenty yard dashes. In the dual meet with Ogden the following Saturday he won these same events, except the hammer, which he did not enter. His most remarkable feat was in the state meet last Saturday, in which 185 of the best high school athletes in the state competed. Here he walked away with four firsts, scoring more points than any team, except the high school. He set a new high school record for the high jump and two hundred and twenty yard dash and two hundred and twenty yard dash and tied the record in the hundred. At kins is a sophomore, and has two more years at the school. His home is in Millford.

Last night the various members of the club, who have worked long and faithfully in promoting the show, were happy that the biggest part of their work was done and that the prospects were for the most successful show ever held in the history of the club. One accident happened to mar the opening of the show, but it was one of those things that could not be helped. Trampas, a large and handsome collic owned by M. D. Martin of 1420 South Third East street, jumped from the third story window to the cement sidewalk and was instantly killed.

The dog had been placed in the kennel assigned to him by the superintendent of the show, and a few minutes later he astonished the crowd by jumping out of the kennel, running full speed to an open window and leaping to the sidewalk. Spectators and attendants rushed to the sidewalk, but the dog was dead. The colliar of the dog was loose, and he had little trouble in slipping it, and in this manner gained his freedom only to leap to death.
